□ PRELUDE

Prelude in E-flat Major, Op. 99 by Camille Saint-Saens

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

TIME OF CENTERING

The Time of Centering: We use this time to make the transition between "getting here" and "being here." Take these few moments of quiet to get in touch with the calm places, the still, deep places in you where God dwells. Relax your body; quiet the inner dialogue of your mind. Take a deep breath in and say "Jesus." Take a deep breath out and let go of any burdens. Repeat. Be aware of being with others. Feel the spirit of community.

CALL TO WORSHIP

One: We give praise and thanks to our God,

All: Who delivers us from futility and from darkened understanding.

One: Who is our hope in hard times –

All: Our mighty and everlasting hope,

One: Who is our joy to please,

All: And our salvation every day.

One: Come, let us worship our God.

Eternal God, from the beginning of time you have called your children into communion with you. Yet we confess that like all the rest, we have turned to our own way and refused your love and grace. All: The old is gone away. The new is before us.

- For the month of July, Paul will offer an online20-minute guided meditation every Wednesday at noon. The purpose of Christian meditation (Centering Prayer) is to grow closer to Jesus by following his way of being "in" the world which was grounded in his intimate relationship with God (John 15). Each of us can participate in the dynamic flow of mutual love shared by God the Father, Jesus the Son, and the Holy Spirit through the subtle yet powerful act of meditation. Sitting in silence in a posture of humility, we seek to grow more aware of our connectedness to God and with one another. Please see the Friday email for the Zoom link or email paul@leasidepc.ca.

SAVE THE DATE:

- Saturday September 20th, 9:30am 11:30am, at Leaside Presbyterian Church with Dr. Katherine Piderman, retired chaplain of the Mayo Clinic and associate professor in the Mayo College of Medicine in Rochester, MN.

 project she created for patients at the Mayo legacy to share with loved ones. The workshop will include questions that will help attendees reflect on their own spiritual legacy and what wisdom or guidance they would like to share with others. Please speak to Paul for more information.

- A reminder that the service is being recorded and will be available on both the website and on Facebook.

LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

We acknowledge with gratitude and humility this land on which Leaside Presbyterian Church ministers. Today, this meeting place is still home to many Indigenous people from across Turtle Island and we are grateful to have the opportunity to worship on this land. Wherever we are, we acknowledge the privilege of inheriting this land from those who have gone before us.

Wherever we are, we recognize the responsibility of caring for this land to pass on to those who come after us. We are grateful for this gift of being on this land.
