The Great Prayer of Thanksgiving

The presider begins with an introduction before the prayer below is said.

One: The Lord be with you;

All: And also with you.

One: Lift up your hearts;

All: We lift them up to the Lord.

One: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God;

All: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

The presider continues the prayer until the sanctus below is sung.

All: Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
 Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
 heaven and earth are full, full of your glory.
 Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest.
 Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
 Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

After the presider breaks the bread and takes the cup, the following response will be said.

One: Jesus, firstborn of Mary,

All: Have mercy on us.

One: Jesus, Saviour of the world,

All: Have mercy on us.

One: Jesus, monarch of heaven,

All: Grant us peace.

The Lord's Prayer

All: Abba, Amma, Beloved, Your name be hallowed, your reign spread among us;
 your will be done well, at all times, in all places,
 on earth as in heaven.
 Give us the bread we need for today.
 Forgive us our sins
 as we forgive those who sin against us.
 Let us not fail in the time of our testing;
 spare us from trials too sharp to endure;
 free us from the grip of all evil powers.

For yours is the reign, the power, and the glory,
the victory of love, for now and eternity,
world without end. Amen and Amen.

UNCEASING PRAYER

Every Sunday, you'll find an updated prayer for specific PWS&D programs and emergency responses, new prayers from PWS&D's global partners, Canada-wide volunteers and ecumenical coalitions, as well as prayers taken from the Bible or the Book of Praise. Thank you for continuing to pray for people affected by conflict, climate change, inequality and systemic cycles of poverty around the globe.

God, bless the earth and the ground we walk on.

Wherever we run and jump, walk and hike make us grateful for the ground under our feet.

God, bless the earth and the dirt we dig in. Whenever we taste something from our gardens make us grateful for the dirt we dig in.

God, bless the earth and the wind that blows. Wherever the wind has turned into storms, give people strength and courage to pick up the pieces of their lives and rebuild their homes.

God, bless the earth and the rain that falls. Wherever the water has turned into floods, give people strength and courage to clean up the mess and rebuild their communities.

God, bless the earth and the sky above us. Help us live wisely under the sky, caring for the air we breathe, the water that flows, the wind that blows and everything that grows. Help us remember the earth and everything in it belongs to you. Let us treat everything as your gift. Amen.

From the PCC's Earth Day Intergenerational Worship Resource.

LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

We acknowledge with gratitude and humility this land on which Leaside Presbyterian Church ministers. Today, this meeting place is still home to many Indigenous people from across Turtle Island and we are grateful to have the opportunity to worship on this land.

Wherever we are, we acknowledge the privilege of inheriting this land from those who have gone before us.

Wherever we are,

we recognize the responsibility of caring for this land to pass on to those who come after us. We are grateful for this gift of being on this land.
